Personal Summary:

Academic:

Islamic Azad University South Tehran Branch 2009-2013

BA English Language Teaching

As long as my bachelors degree was in the field of teaching English language, I took different classes in English, Education, and also psychology departments. I studied the four different English skills alongside the courses related to teaching these skills to EFL students. I also studied courses related to educational and developmental psychology and educational management.

Zabansara English Institute 2012

Teachers Training Course (TTC)

I took part in a three-month English teachers training course held by a famous English language institute in Tehran which is called Zabansara. During this course we studied Jeremy Harmer's book How to teach English and observed 30 English language classes at different levels, and also taught 5 sessions.

Career History:

Sepehr Translation Office 2010-2015

I started my career in the field of English language as a part time translator at this office. I was mostly responsible for translating articles and documents related to English studies and law. I continued working there till January 2016, when I came to the United States to continue my educations.

Farzanegan E Pouya Elementary School 2011-2013

English Language Teacher

I taught Let's Go EFL textbooks at an elementary school to Farsi speaking students, between 10 to 13 years old for two years. It was such a great experience working with children and I have learned a lot from them.

Jahad Daneshgahi English Language Institute 2011-2015

English Language Teacher

I had been teaching English to adult Farsi speaking students as a foreign language for almost 4 years.

I taught different EFL textbooks at this English language institute namely Top Notch, New English File, and American English File at that institute. I taught these textbooks at different adult classes from elementary to advanced levels. Students were aged from 15 to 25.
